MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

3 March 1964

UTILITY, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]
UTILITY's Office

1. Meeting was scheduled for 1500 but as usual guards at gate had not been informed that I was bringing guest. This plus delay in [REDACTED] arrival, 1430 at Riem, made us ten minutes late. [REDACTED] greeted us at door after obvious alert by guards.

2. Wash Rep.: [REDACTED] thanked UTILITY for the letter on nomination of [REDACTED] to Washington. He said would be fine appointment. UTILITY explained that assignment promised long ago, reward, etc. I later asked UTILITY if letter to [REDACTED] had been sent via [REDACTED] Kuehne. It was.

3. Station Changes: [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] had been here, that it decided [REDACTED] would move to Bonn about 10-15 September, that he would be on home leave this summer with [REDACTED] ACOS and [REDACTED] leaving PCS in fall after [REDACTED] return. [REDACTED] also said that [REDACTED] would transfer to Bonn to run operations there, primarily against the Soviet target although there are indications the Satellite representatives are getting closer to Bonn all the time.

4. C/MLB: [REDACTED] then disclosed that [REDACTED] would replace [REDACTED]. He said he had drafted a letter for UTILITY but had tried to improve on the English and had not had time to have it retyped because he had come directly from the plane. He proceeded to read all the facts in the letter and said [REDACTED] would deliver a copy later. For contents see attached letter which given to [REDACTED] by [REDACTED] 5 March. [REDACTED] had said it could be given to one of UTILITY's aides. Two copies were passed in sealed envelope. UTILITY replied that [REDACTED] would be welcome. ([REDACTED] cabled this in FRAN-5537 dated 5 March.) (Per [REDACTED], [REDACTED] also told [REDACTED] about [REDACTED] at lunch same day.)

2. Cyprus: UTILITY asked about situation. [REDACTED] replied he knew nothing more than what had read in papers since not within his area although [REDACTED] involved.

3. CALLIKAK: UTILITY repeated many of his previously expressed statements on CALLIKAK situation. He said that the Ministry of the Interior had tried to put the blame for a poor law on the Parliament but this had not worked. He also said that the Fornoff had been told it would take the U.S. three months to reach a position (see cable). UTILITY also said that CATIDE had proposed that the Chief of the German CALLIKAK organization be a trained lawyer but that he not be a member of the courts. CATIDE feels that the main weakness of the draft law is that it mixes executive and judicial functions.

UTILITY recommended that a new draft should be submitted but when [] asked who should submit, UTILITY was not sure. He said that he would talk to the fraction leaders and pass the results to [] Later suggested this be done with [] in Bonn and [] could get up there if necessary, [] did not think it would take three months for the U.S. to react.

4. UTILITY regretted he could not attend herrenabend because he was leaving for Bonn. He also told us that Family Minister Bruno Heck was being briefed by CATIDE today. He considers him a good man.
